

Session combining Tarot, Mythology & Intuitive messages.

Readings are traditionally used for divination, to predict future happenings. It is also a powerful tool to take us to inner places where spirit and psych meet, a guideline or sort of treasure map that directs us to explore the presenting images in our lives. These readings can offer the most delicious insights, it can loosen the spirits, broaden perspective, shine a light into the vast matrix of Self. It reminds us that our stories are colourful and complex, that the solutions to our dilemmas and desires are within reach. It shows us that our psyche consists of a multi-faceted -inner bunch and the wonder that we all share relatable images and symbols. It invites us to play with these symbols and images to learn more about the context of our current storylines. It can call us back to focus on what is necessary, it can grace us with hope and warn against dangers – all which are not necessarily literal. Liny uses tarot as an entry point to the sessions. A touch of divination, intuitive guidance, and elements of archetypal psychology will be at play.
